

HIGH COURT OF JUSTICIARY

Direction

No.1 of 2018

Specified hearings for participation by a detained person through live television link

This Direction takes effect from 25 January 2018.

Under and by virtue of the power conferred on me by section 288K of the Criminal Procedure (Scotland) Act 1995, I hereby specify that a detained person may participate through live television link in the following types of hearings:

1. An appeal hearing in the High Court of Justiciary sitting in Edinburgh or Glasgow in respect of which the detained person is a prisoner in one of the places of detention specified in Schedule A to this direction.
2. A preliminary hearing in the High Court of Justiciary sitting in Edinburgh or Glasgow in respect of which the detained person is a prisoner in one of the places of detention specified in Schedule A to this direction.
3. An appeal hearing in the Sheriff Appeal Court sitting in Edinburgh or Glasgow in respect of which the detained person is a prisoner in one of the places of detention specified in the Schedule A to this direction.
4. A full committal, an intermediate diet or a sentencing hearing in any of the Sheriff Courts specified in Schedule B to this direction, but only if the detained person is a prisoner in one of the places of detention specified in schedule A to this direction.
