

HIGH COURT OF JUSTICIARY

PRACTICE NOTE

No. 3 of 2010

Appeals against Conviction and Sentence

1. The Criminal Procedure (Scotland) Act 1995 allows a convicted person to appeal to the High Court against both conviction and sentence; this is permitted, in solemn proceedings, by virtue of section 106(1)(f)(i) and in summary proceedings by virtue of section 175(2)(d)(i).
2. The purpose of this Practice Note is to inform practitioners that the court will resume its practice of hearing such appeals, unless there is good reason not to, at a single sitting.

A. C. HAMILTON

Lord Justice General
