

Policy on the secure handling, use, storage and retention of disclosure information

General Principles

1. The Scottish Courts and Tribunals Service complies fully with the Code of Practice, issued by Scottish Ministers, regarding the correct handling, holding and destroying of Disclosure information provided by Disclosure Scotland under Part V of the Police Act 1997 (“the 1997 Act”), for the purposes of assessing applicants' suitability for employment purposes, voluntary positions, licensing and other relevant purposes. It also complies fully with the Data Protection Act 1998 and other relevant legislation pertaining to the safe handling, use, storage, retention and disposal of Disclosure information and has a written policy on these matters.

Usage

2. We use Disclosure information only for the purpose for which it has been provided. The information provided by an individual for a position within the Scottish Courts and Tribunals Service is not used or disclosed in a manner incompatible with the purpose. We process personal data only with the express consent of the individual. We notify the individual of any non-obvious use of the data, including further disclosure to a third party, identifying the Data Controller, the purpose for the processing, and any further relevant information.

Handling

3. The Scottish Courts and Tribunals Service recognises that, under section 124¹ of the 1997 Act, it is a criminal offence to disclose Disclosure information to any unauthorised person. We, therefore, only pass Disclosure information to those who are authorised to see it in the course of their duties. The Scottish Courts and Tribunals Service will not disclose information provided under subsection 113(B)(5)² of the 1997 Act, namely information which is not included in the Disclosure, to the applicant.

Access and Storage

4. We do not keep Disclosure information on an individual's personnel file. It is kept securely, in lockable, non-portable storage containers. Access to storage units is strictly controlled to authorised and named individuals, who are entitled to see such information in the course of their duties.

¹ The Serious Organised Crime and Police Act 2005 (“the 2005 Act”) Schedule 14, Paragraph 12 amended section 124

² Subsection 163(2) of the 2005 Act inserted subsection 113B into the 1997 Act. Subsection 113B(5) of the 2005 Act replaces subsection 115(8) of the 1997 Act.

Retention

5. We do not keep Disclosures or Disclosure information for any longer than is required after a recruitment (or any other relevant) decision has been taken. In general, this is no longer than 90 days. This is to allow for the resolution of any disputes or complaints. Disclosure information will only be retained for longer than this period in exceptional circumstances which justify retention for a longer period e.g. when a dispute extends beyond the 90 day period. The same conditions relating to secure storage and access will apply during any such period.

Disposal

6. Once the retention period has elapsed, we will ensure that Disclosure information is immediately destroyed in a secure manner i.e. by shredding, pulping or burning. The Scottish Courts and Tribunals Service will ensure that Disclosure information which is awaiting destruction will not be kept in any insecure receptacle (e.g. a waste bin or confidential waste sack). We will not retain any image or photocopy or any other form of the Disclosure information. We will, however, keep a record of the date of issue of the Disclosure, the name of the subject, the Disclosure type, the position for which the Disclosure was requested, the unique reference number of the Disclosure and details of the recruitment decision taken.
