Court | 3. When directions 1 and 2 above have been carried out, your application is now ready to be sent to the court. With it you must enclose:-

(i) your marriage certificate (the document headed “Extract of an entry in a Register of Marriages”), which will be returned to you in due course. Check the notes on page 2 to see if you also need to obtain a letter from the National Records of Scotland stating that there is no record that your spouse has divorced you;

(ii) either a cheque or postal order in respect of the court fee, crossed and made payable to “Scottish Court and Tribunal Service”, or a completed form SP15, claiming exemption from the court fee;

(iii) the interim gender recognition certificate or a certified copy of it. |
| | 4. Receipt of your application will be promptly acknowledged. Should you wish to withdraw the application for any reason, please contact the Court of Session immediately. |

THE NOTES ON THIS AND THE FOLLOWING PAGES ARE DESIGNED TO ASSIST YOU.
PLEASE READ THEM CAREFULLY BEFORE COMPLETING EACH SECTION OF THE FORM.

Notes on Sections 1 and 2 opposite

- (i) The names entered in Sections 1 and 2 opposite must be those on your marriage certificate. If you are known by another name which does not appear on that certificate, please write that name in brackets.
- (ii) Home addresses should be given where these are known. The court is required by law to serve a copy of this application on your spouse.

Note on Section 3 opposite

If the address of your spouse is NOT known or cannot reasonably be ascertained, please enter "not known" in this section; you must take all reasonable steps to find out where your spouse is living and state on a separate sheet what steps you have taken and attach it to this form then proceed to section 4.

N.B. The statement must be signed.

Notes of Section 4 opposite

In the event that the address of your spouse is unknown to you, the court is required by law to intimate a copy of this application to:

- (i) ONE of the next-of-kin of your spouse. ("Next-of-kin" does not include yourself or any children of the marriage for the purposes of this application. Children of the marriage includes any adopted children, and/or children accepted into the family.)
- (ii) ALL children of your marriage aged 16 years or over, whether or not they live with you.

When entering the details of the next-of-kin, if any, please state his or her relationship to your spouse (i.e. "mother", "father", "brother", "sister", etc).

If you do not know the identity or whereabouts of any of the next-of-kin of your spouse, or the whereabouts of any of the children of your marriage, please enter "not known" where appropriate.

LETTER FROM NATIONAL RECORDS OF SCOTLAND. If you do not know the address of your spouse and you were married in Scotland, you must obtain a letter from the National Records of Scotland stating that there is no record that your spouse has divorced you. The letter must be issued not more than one month before the date of posting this application to the Court. If you require to obtain a letter you should apply to:

National Records of Scotland, Registration Branch, New Register House, Edinburgh, EH1 3YT, stating both spouses' full names, the date and place of your marriage and requesting that a search be made to confirm that there is no record that your spouse has divorced you. (Note - a fee will be charged for this service.)

The requirement to obtain a letter from National Records of Scotland does not apply if you were married outwith Scotland.

A photocopy of the interim gender recognition certificate will NOT be accepted.

If the principal interim gender recognition certificate is not available, a copy certified by the Gender Recognition Panel should be lodged instead. This can be obtained from the Gender Recognition Panel at PO Box 6987, Leicester, LE1 6ZX, or at <http://www.grp.gov.uk>

Note on Section 9 opposite

“Children of the marriage” includes any adopted children and/or children accepted into the family.

Notes on Section 11 opposite

No claim can be made in this form of divorce application for payment to you of a periodical allowance (i.e. regular payment of money weekly, monthly etc for your maintenance) or a capital sum (i.e. lump sum). If you wish to make such a claim, you should consult a solicitor.

NOTE: While it may be possible to obtain an order for periodical allowance after divorce, the right to payment of a capital sum is lost once decree of divorce is granted.

No application can be made in this form of divorce application for postponement of decree under section 3A of the Divorce (Scotland) Act 1976. On an application under that section, the court may postpone the grant of decree of divorce if it is satisfied that:

- (a) the applicant is prevented from entering into a religious marriage by virtue of a requirement of that religion of that marriage; and
- (b) the other party can act so as to remove or enable or contribute to the removal of, the impediment which prevents that marriage.

As at 26th February 2007 “religious marriage” for the purposes of section 3A of the Divorce (Scotland) Act 1976 means a marriage solemnised by a celebrant of any Hebrew congregation (i.e. a Jewish marriage) (S.S.I. 2006/253).

If you wish to make such an application you should consult a solicitor or Citizens’ Advice Bureau.
