Decision

[1] I am satisfied, in terms of section 48(4) of the Tribunals (Scotland) Act 2014, that there are arguable grounds for the appeal and, in terms of section 50(4)(a) of the Act, that the appeal raises an important point of principle in relation to the proper interpretation of the expression “provides public benefit” in section 7(1) of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005. I therefore grant permission to appeal.
